Don't Let Lazy Key Control Procedures Put a Lock on Your Dealership

Adopting Sentry's recommended procedures can help you reduce your key control exposures.

Sentry is a leading provider of insurance and safety services for the auto dealership industry. Put our expertise to work for you. Sentry's experienced safety professionals recommend that auto dealership customers adopt specific key control procedures covering:

- Location
- View
- Access
- Accountability

These recommendations, designed to help you reduce your claims, are detailed in Sentry Solutions – The Guide to Implementing Key Control Procedures.

With Sentry's help, you'll spend less time worrying about key control and more time focusing on running your business successfully.

Sentry Insurance – We know your business.

Claim File

A customer brought his car in to a dealership for minor repairs. After the repairs were done, a service employee parked the vehicle in front of the dealership with the keys in it.

The car was stolen later that same day. No one realized the car had been stolen until after the owner came to pick up the vehicle and it could not be found.

Sentry's property and casualty coverages are underwritten by Sentry Insurance a Mutual Company or its subsidiary Sentry Select Insurance Company, Stevens Point, WI. Safety and claims services are provided by the underwriting company, or by Parker Services LLC, a subsidiary of Sentry Insurance a Mutual Company, Stevens Point, WI. Policies are not available in all states.

This page contains general information on reducing risk. Sentry recommends that you consult with your legal counsel and safety experts as appropriate.
