

Don't Let Employee Vehicle Use Put Your Dealership On the Block

Adopting Sentry's recommended procedures can help you reduce your employee vehicle use exposures.

Sentry is a leading provider of insurance and safety services for the auto dealership industry. Put our expertise to work for you. Sentry's experienced safety professionals recommend that auto dealership customers adopt specific prevention procedures covering:

- Written safety programs
- MVR and background checks
- Employee training
- Vehicle usage
- Vehicle maintenance

These recommendations, designed to help you reduce your claims, are detailed in Sentry Solutions – The Guide to Employee Use of Dealership and Non-Owned Vehicles.

With Sentry's help, you'll spend less time worrying about employee vehicle use and more time focusing on running your business successfully.

Claim File

A dealership hired its regular on-call driver to deliver three vehicles to an auto auction. The driver was told to find two other drivers, which he did. On the trip back from the auction, one of the two other drivers ran a red light and struck another vehicle. The on-call driver was killed and the other driver was seriously injured. In subsequent lawsuits, the dealership was found responsible for injuries and damages, as well as workers' compensation death benefits.

Sentry's property and casualty coverages are underwritten by Sentry Insurance a Mutual Company or its subsidiary Sentry Select Insurance Company, Stevens Point, WI.
