Don't Let Employee Safety Failures Put You in a Slingshot

Adopting Sentry's recommended procedures can help you reduce employee injury exposures.

Sentry is a leading provider of insurance and safety services for industrial equipment dealers. Put our expertise to work for you.

Sentry's experienced safety professionals recommend that industrial equipment dealers adopt employee injury exposure prevention procedures covering:

- Employee background checks
- Personal Protective Equipment
- Written safety policy statements
- Safety assignments to employees
- Facility housekeeping

These procedures, designed to help you reduce your claims, are detailed in Sentry Solutions – The Guide to Employee Safety in Your Dealership.

With Sentry's help, you'll spend less time worrying about employee safety and more time focusing on running your business successfully.

Visit us at sentry.com for more information on reducing risks associated with your business.

Claim File

A dealership employee was using an overhead crane to raise a box for attachment to a dumpster. The crane had an unrated couple, which failed as the box was being raised. When the couple broke, the falling box struck the employee, causing a fractured hip. The employee was hospitalized and off the job for several weeks as a result of this accident.
