

COVERAGE FOR YOUR FOOD PROCESSING BUSINESS

Equipment breakdown protection

Food processing businesses like yours rely on a variety of equipment for your daily operations—refrigeration systems, boilers, heat exchangers, and even breaker panels and transformers. Unfortunately, the reality is that equipment breaks down from time to time, potentially resulting in expensive repairs and lost revenue.

That's why equipment breakdown coverage is so important. At Sentry, we cover a variety of industry exposures, including spoilage and contamination, along with breakdowns to your mechanical, electrical, and pressure equipment.

We know how much your food processing business means to you. And we know you want to stay financially protected in case something goes wrong. With our equipment breakdown coverage, we'll help you do exactly that.
